

Where the world stops to relax

Palm Island Resort • St. Vincent and the Grenadines • West Indies

Getting here: Palm Island Resort is a short 45-minute flight from Barbados to Union Island on Grenadines Airlines, followed by a leisurely, complimentary eight-minute boat ride to the island.

Palm Island Resort is a private island hideaway located near the southern tip of St. Vincent and the Grenadines. Known for stunning natural beauty and clear warm waters this casually elegant all-inclusive 135-acre resort caters to discerning travelers who seek seclusion. Yachters and divers from around the world gravitate to this unspoiled paradise, lured by its abundant sea life, shipwrecks, and beautiful reefs.

◆◆◆◆ Palm Island Resort

An all-inclusive whole-island resort for escapist in search of an elegant Caribbean retreat, all the exciting possibilities of an island archipelago right at your doorstep.

Great care has been taken to ensure the resort is in harmony with its untouched natural surroundings, the public areas of thatch, bamboo and terra-cotta complemented by just 42 guestrooms, suites and villas that have also been designed with their island setting in mind. Over half of them sit right on the white-sand beach; others set in the palm groves just steps from the Caribbean Sea.

Seagrape Suite

Lazy days revolve around the beaches and ocean; nature trails, water sports and boat trips to the Tobago Cays add a dash of excitement. Elegant evenings begin with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in the alfresco bar and end with candlelit dinners.
